Dear Friends,

This year we are celebrating a very important milestone for the Salon de Virtuosi – our Thirtieth Anniversary Season!

We are proud to be continuing the legacy of Charlotte White, the Salon's founder and guiding light for over 28 years. Charlotte's mission to promote excellence in classical music by supporting and encouraging emerging young musicians as they follow their dreams to pursue demanding careers as performing artists continues to inspire our work today. Over the years we have presented countless unforgettable concerts featuring the most gifted and promising young talents who have demonstrated their passion and commitment to the world of classical music. Our concerts are presented in an intimate 19th Century "salon" setting at elegant venues throughout New York City, with a unique ambience that fosters direct communication between artist and audience. Each season the most outstanding of these young talents are selected to receive the Salon de Virtuosi's renowned Career Grants. Many of the Salon's past winners have gone on to become today's leading soloists, chamber musicians and leaders in the field of music, and continue to form a close-knit Salon community.

We will celebrate this landmark anniversary and Charlotte's legacy with a special Gala Concert in Tribute to Charlotte White on September 27 at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, featuring some of our most outstanding alumni, hosted by the renowned musicologist and longtime friend of the Salon Robert Sherman of WQXR.

Following this, we have a full and exciting 2018-2019 Season planned! Those of you who joined us as members last season know we have been hard at work selecting phenomenal young artists of the highest caliber to perform and showcase their special talents to our sophisticated Salon audience. This season we will again present six concerts at beautiful venues throughout New York City. Each concert will be followed by a delightful reception and an opportunity for our members and special guests to get to know the artists. The Salon's Fall program will begin with our acclaimed Gala Awards Concert on November 1 at Kosciuszko Foundation, where we will present the Salon's 2018 Career Grant winners. The remainder of our Fall program will feature a variety of gifted young artists (some still in their early teens) who will enchant you with unique musical programs at our Holiday Concert at the beautiful home of Lewis and Elizabeth Bryden and our New Year's Concert at Yamaha Piano Salon.

In the Spring we will continue our unique collaboration with the Consulates of the Czech Republic, Hungary and India to present an array of talents and a celebration of international musical cultures at our Czech Serenade, Musical Soul of Hungary and East Meets West concerts. As a special thank you to Season members, we are planning an additional bonus concert – Spring Song from Japan, the exact date and location to be announced.

On behalf of the Salon's Board of Directors, we thank you for your support of the Salon de Virtuosi! We hope that you will join us again this year as we continue Charlotte's important work. We rely on your generous support to fulfill the Salon's vital mission of providing encouragement and financial assistance to these deserving young artists, who promise to become our future greats!

With warmest wishes,

Erika White, President

Lora Tchekoratova, Artistic Director

The Salon's sophisticated audience of music lovers offers the perfect blend of support that every artist needs: the opportunity to be heard by an enthusiastic audience with discerning ears and critical financial support. By joining the Salon community, your ongoing support and celebration of young talent keeps our great musical heritage vital and alive!

"The Salon is a significant influence in the development of young artists' careers Indeed the musical life of our nation is richer because of your efforts."

- Robert L. Blocker, Dean of Music, Yale University

"I congratulate you on the success of your Salon de Virtuosi and the good use to which you put your success."

- The late Yehudi Menuhin, Legendary Violin Virtuoso, Conductor, Author, Humanitarian

Fellowship Fund

Since its founding, the Salon has awarded over $550,000 in grants to uniquely gifted young artists from around the world, many of whom have gone on to international acclaim. The Salon is very proud and honored to consider all of these wonderful musicians part of the Salon family!

The Salon de Virtuosi and Charlotte White have had an impact on the lives of many superb young artists

"Charlotte was my first host for New York performances and I can remember her ageless wonder vividly. Without her and her support for me I would not be where I am." - James Kim, cellist

"Charlotte was truly an exceptional, inspiring and all around wonderful human being. I feel so lucky to have been in contact with her, and I am sure that everyone that has met her feels exactly the same." - Alessio Bax, pianist

About the Salon

The Salon de Virtuosi is a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to discovering, encouraging and supporting the most talented young musicians to help them achieve their full potential to become tomorrow's great concert artists, thereby nourishing the finest spirit of artistic creativity to help ensure that future generations will be able to enjoy the refining and uplifting influence of great music.

Founded by pianist Charlotte White, the Salon stands at the crossroads of great music and international culture. Each season the Salon presents a dozen or more phenomenally talented young artists from around the world at consulates, diplomatic residences and other exclusive, elegant and intimate venues that capture the charm and vitality of the Old World music salon. The Salon has an outstanding track record of identifying great talent: among the young artists presented in the Salon's earliest years are Gil Shaham, Lang Lang, Philippe Quint, Karen Gomyo, Helen Huang and Wendy Warner.

Following each performance, Salon members and guests are treated to festive buffet suppers and cocktail receptions, which contribute to the warm exchange between artists and guests that creates stimulating and memorable experiences. In the enjoyment of uplifting and exciting music, you will also meet some of the most interesting people in New York!

The Salon is also one of New York's most committed supporters of young musical talent through generous scholarship and career grants. At the conclusion of each season, academic scholarships and professional career grants of $5,000 each are awarded to selected artists, providing them with vital financial support.

"I sincerely hope and trust that this unique organization will continue to grow and thrive for many years to come."

- Gary Graffman, former Dean, Curtis Institute

More tributes to Charlotte and the impact of the Salon

“I admire Charlotte so much not only because she was such a wonderful and successful artist, but a wonderful lady who advocated supporting and discovering young music talents like me. Every time I think about her, I always feel so inspired and grateful. She gave me the opportunity as a young pianist to perform at the SONY Club, and provided me the wonderful support of the Barbara Brookes Arthur Diamond Grant last November. These events are critical to me and young people like me. She represents the positive power of all of us, and her great spirit will shine forever.” - Wei Luo, pianist

*“Charlotte was a remarkable woman in so many areas, but the wonderful things she has done for so many young musicians will surely be remembered with unique appreciation by all of us - young and old. And thinking of age, she always seemed so young! And so enthusiastic. It was not only an honor but also a great pleasure for us to know such a vital, caring and kind lady.” - Gary Graffman

“Charlotte for me was the embodiment of generosity and sophistication. She hosted my very first house concert where she had arranged for the venerable pianist Rosalyn Tureck to come hear me play. She was always supportive of me and it meant the world to have someone like Charlotte on my side. She is the reason young artists like me have succeeded. I will always remember her and be forever grateful.” - Pitnarry Shin, cellist
